German Media Ignores 7-year-old German girl savagely raped by a North African Muslim invader

One evening in September 2015 in Chemnitz (Germany), a 7-year-old White girl was riding her bicycle in the park - suddenly an unknown Black Muslim man stopped the girl, covered her mouth with his hand, pulled her off the bike and brutally raped her. After he finished the rape, he let the girl go and ran away. It happened so quickly that the mother did not even notice anything. She first realized it when the child came crying and screaming to her. According to the police, the pedophile rapist fled to the main train station... and escaped. But the German media have been virtually silent about this crime. We all know why.

He was about 30-years-old and dressed in blue pants and a grey t-shirt and brown (Nike) running shoes. He had a white mobile phone and resembled a "Southerner" [i.e. a North African].

FEARS THAT PUBLIC KNOWLEDGE OF CHILDREN BEING MOLESTED BY MUSLIM MIGRANTS COULD LEAD TO "RIGHT-WING DEMONSTRATIONS" HAS GERMAN POLICE COVERING UP RAPES SO AS 'NOT TO LEGITIMIZE CRITICS OF MASS MIGRATION'

23 September 2015

Police in Germany are keeping quiet about a spate of rapes targeting children committed by Muslim migrants in and around refugee camps so as not to "legitimize" critics of mass migration, according to local media reports. The Gatestone Institute has compiled a list of the innumerable rapes committed by predominantly Muslim asylum seekers over the last few months. One of those cases involved a 13-year-old girl who was raped at a migrant camp in Detmold, a city in west-central Germany. The girl and her mother originally fled the Middle East to escape from sexual abuse in their home, only to be targeted by an asylum seeker from the same country.

Fearing that public knowledge of the rape could lead to "right-wing demonstrations," the police buried the incident. "Although the rape took place in June, police kept silent about it for nearly three months, until local media published a story about the crime," writes Soeren Kern.

"According to an editorial comment in the newspaper Westfalen-Blatt, police are refusing to go public about crimes involving refugees and migrants because they do not want to give legitimacy to critics of mass migration."

According to Kern, women in the camps are being paid 10 euros to have sex with male asylum seekers, who make up 80% of the population in the migrant centers. Guards at the camp are turning a blind eye to the prostitution because they are making money from trafficking drugs and weapons. The article lists a number of other rapes of German teenagers, including a 14-year-old boy who was raped inside a train carriage by an Arab man, that have been kept secret by police.

Police in the Bavarian town of Mering also warned parents not to allow their children to go outside unaccompanied after a 16-year-old girl was raped on September 11th by a "dark-skinned man speaking broken German" as she walked home from the train station, which is situated near a migrant camp. "Dozens of other cases of rape and attempted rape — cases in which police are specifically looking for foreign perpetrators (German police often refer to them as Südländer, or "southerners") — remain unresolved," writes Kern.

Numerous prominent welfare organizations in Germany warned that women and children were being raped at a migrant camp in Hessen, but the issue has received very little press attention. Germany's top broadcaster ZDF, is refusing to run crime stories about Muslim rape suspects because, in the words of Editor-in-chief Ina-Maria Reize-

Wildemann: "We don't want to inflame the situation and spread the bad mood. They [migrants] don't deserve it."

Earlier this month, a 7-year-old girl was raped by a North African migrant in a German park - infer - a story that also received little media attention. Schools in Germany situated near migrant camps are also warning girls not to wear shorts or skirts so as not to offend migrants and provoke "attacks." "Revealing tops or blouses, short shorts or miniskirts could lead to misunderstandings," wrote school administrators, asking students to respect the migrants' "culture" at the expense of their own heritage.

WILL EUROPE TURN A BLIND EYE

To Muslim Pedophiles Posing As Refugees And Bringing Their Child Brides From Forced Marriages Into Europe?

Muslim Child brides from the Middle East are turning up in refugee centers in The Netherlands, and Dutch authorities are at a loss on how to deal with the problem. Although Dutch law doesn't allow girls to marry until 16, it also recognizes foreign marriages of younger girls if the marriage is legal in the bride and groom's country of origin. Social workers are faced with a horrifying dilemma: return girls as young as 13 to their middle-aged husbands and, in the process, turn a blind eye to what would be government-sanctioned child rape; or break up families?

Dutch politician Attje Kuiken is appalled, and wants the law updated to protect refugee child brides from what she sees as sexual abuse: "A 12-year-old girl with a 40-year-old-man — that is not a marriage, that is pedophilia. We're talking about really young children, girls 12, 13 years old who are victims of legal sexual abuse in their home countries."

Dutch immigration minister Klaas Dijkhoff is working on getting his country's immigration laws updated to only recognize foreign marriages if both partners are over the age of 18. In the meantime, child brides are proliferating among the migrants.

DOZENS OF MUSLIM MEN RAPED ONE 12-YEAR-OLD SCHOOLGIRL, BUT ONLY FIVE HAVE BEEN JAILED SO FAR

At least five Muslim men have been sentenced to a combined 82 years for their roles in a child sex grooming ring in the picturesque market town of Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire in the South East of England.

The taxi drivers and market traders had been found guilty in July, but have now been sentenced for a range of crimes including rape of a child under 13 and child prostitution.

Although child 'A', who had been 12 and 13-years-old when she was abused told police she had been raped by at least 60 men, only 11 of the men have faced charges. The girl and a second, identified only as child 'B' had been given gifts by the men, including fast food, drugs, and inexpensive trinkets in return for sex and were passed around. The plight of the first girl was only flagged by authorities after she had given birth twice in two years and couldn't identify the fathers. She had been raped so frequently — daily — by different men, she had no way of telling.

During his sentencing, senior judge John Bevan QC said the race of the girls played a significant factor in why they had been picked for abuse by the men. He said that the Asian community looked after their own, while the native one failed to do so, remarking: "The combination of inadequate parenting leading to rebellious children lacking supervision provided an opportunity. If they pursued Asian underage girls, they would have paid a heavy price in their community."

Vikram Singh (45) drugged the girls and raped them, and has been identified as a ringleader. He was sentenced to 14 years.

Asif Hussain (33) of Milton Keynes was convicted of three counts of rape and jailed for 13 years. The court heard how he raped one of the girls in her home while she was still wearing her school uniform and attempted to sell her on to men who resembled “Osama Bin Laden.”

Arshad Jani (33) was found guilty of rape and conspiracy to rape and jailed for 13 years. The court was told he had a wife and young family in Pakistan who he had been supporting with his earnings in Aylesbury.

Pakistani citizen Mohammed Imran (38) of Bradford was convicted of three counts of rape, one count of conspiracy to rape and one count of child prostitution. He will be jailed for 19 years and will face deportation upon his release.

Akbari Khan (36) of Aylesbury was found guilty of two counts of rape, administering a substance with intent, and conspiracy to rape and will be jailed for 16 years. Like Jani, he also has a young family.

Taimoor Khan (29) was sentenced to three years in prison for one count of sexual activity with a child.

The testimony of the girls makes shocking reading: Girl ‘A’ said in a police statement: “You get passed round. It wasn’t particularly me looking for them. It was them looking for me. It’s just that they pass your number around. Or you’re with one of them and they invited three or four of their friends round and then you have to sleep with them.

“Because you’re in their place and they’re making your life a bit more exciting, so you do what they want. I just knew Asian men wanted to sleep with me. I didn’t think they found me attractive. I was happy that I was wanted. I felt popular. Like they wanted me and I got a load of attention, that was it.”

Girl B is now suing Buckinghamshire county council for neglect.

Harmohan Nangpal (41) of Langdale Drive, Hayes, is accused of one count of rape, and one count of sexual activity with a child.

Akbari Khan (36) of Mandeville Road, Aylesbury, denies two counts of rape, one count of sexual activity with a child, and one each of administering a substance with intent, conspiracy to rape, and conspiracy to commit sexual activity with a child.

Jerome Joe (35) of Pightle Crescent, Buckingham, is charged with one count of rape and a single count of sexual activity with a child.

Sajad Ali (34) of Brockhurst Road, Chesham, is charged with rape, sexual activity with a child and administering a substance.

Sohail Qamar (41) of St Anne’s Road, Aylesbury, is accused of sexual activity with a child, two counts of rape, and assault occasioning actual bodily harm.

Faisal Iqbal (32) of Pixie Road, Aylesbury, is on trial accused of conspiracy to rape and conspiracy to commit sexual activity with a child.

Dutch authorities worry about child brides? or, is it just live babies that bother them? They of the red light district, sex shops, legal prostitution, government-subsidized sex services for the disabled, pro-abortion, legal euthanasia including of babies up to a year old (the so-called Groninger Protocol) without fear of judicial prosecution? Yes, the situation is deplorable and immoral, but how do you handle it? Mothers who are minors, in a new country, with a new language, limited education and skills... if you remove them from their “husbands”, you wouldn’t necessarily want to separate mother and child in a foster care situation, and, adoptions could be dicey on account of religion. Wow!

Sweden: Muslim rapes woman lying on broken glass

In another Swedish rape case that took place inside a Muslim ghetto, a female was gang raped; raped until bleeding with a gun; gang raped again. The risk of being raped in Sweden during one’s lifetime is one out of four (including estimated shadow-figures and if every raped woman is only raped once), which is probably equal to the risk of being raped in countries in war, such as Iraq or Syria. When it comes to rape, Islamized Sweden is already in a state of war. Sweden does not publish statistics on immigrant crime. If we want to have a hint about who is committing these tens of thousands rapes and other types of sexual assaults yearly, we can turn to another Scandinavian country, Sweden’s neighbor Norway, the country most similar to Sweden. Here 100% of all attack-rapes (rapes where the attacker and the victim did not know each other beforehand) in the last five years in Oslo were committed by immigrants from “non-Western” countries. In Stavanger, a major Norwegian city, 90% of rapes are committed by “immigrants.”

A very violent rape took place on 12 September 2014. It all began when the Somali man stole the woman’s bicycle. When she followed him to take back the bike, he trapped her in a courtyard.

“Now you will die you fucking cunt!,” the Somali cried as he attacked her. He kicked and hit his victim in the head with a glass bottle and then raped her in different ways. The woman suffered serious injuries. According to the court, the rape was “ruthless, brutal and characterized by roughness.”

The woman has felt the fear of death, and many times during the rapes she asked him to stop, at one point by resting on knees with her hands clasped as in prayer. The man... held the woman in a way so she could not breathe. She was lying on broken glass when he attempted anal intercourse,’ reads the judgment.

Ibrahim Ahmed Dahir, who stated that he does not remember anything of the event, was sentenced to 6 years in prison for aggravated rape and has to pay 164,000 kroner (21,000 USD) in damages to the woman. The man had become a Swedish citizen and therefore could not be deported back to Somalia.”

GUESS WHAT ELSE MUSLIM ‘REFUGEES’ ARE BRINGING INTO GERMANY

A RAPE EPIDEMIC.

Growing numbers of German women and very young girls across the country are being raped by Muslim immigrants. At this rate, Germany could by bypass Sweden as the Muslim rape capital of Europe. Not surprisingly, many of the rapes are being downplayed by German authorities and the national media, apparently to avoid fueling anti-Muslim immigrant sentiments.

Rapes of Muslim women and children in refugee centers is also rampant but who cares? Meanwhile, the raping of German women by asylum seekers is becoming commonplace. Following are a few select cases just from 2015:

On September 11th, a 16-year-old girl was raped by an unidentified “dark-skinned man speaking broken German” close to a refugee shelter in the Bavarian town of Mering. The attack occurred while the girl was walking home from the train station.

On August 13th, police arrested two Iraqi asylum seekers, aged 23 and 19, for raping an 18-year-old German woman behind a schoolyard in Hamm, a city in North Rhine-Westphalia.

On July 26th, a 14-year-old boy was sexually assaulted inside the bathroom of a regional train in Heilbronn, a city in southwestern Germany. Police are looking for a “dark skinned” man between the ages of 30 and 40 who has an “Arab appearance.”

Also on July 26th, a 21-year-old Tunisian asylum seeker raped a 20-year-old woman in the Dornwaldsiedlung district of Karlsruhe. Police kept the crime secret until August 14th, when a local paper went public with the story.

On June 9th, two Somali asylum seekers, aged 20 and 18, were sentenced to seven-and-a-half years in prison for raping a 21-year-old German woman in Bad Kreuznach, a town in Rhineland-Palatinate, on 13 December 2014.

On June 5th, a 30-year-old Somali asylum seeker called “Ali S” was sentenced to four years and nine months in prison for attempting to rape a 20-year-old woman in Munich. Ali had previously served a seven-year sentence for rape, and had been out of prison for only five months before he attacked again. In an effort to protect the identity of Ali S, a Munich newspaper referred to him by the more politically correct "Joseph T."

On May 22nd, a 30-year-old Moroccan man was sentenced to four years and nine months in prison for attempting to rape a 55-year-old woman in Dresden.

On May 20th, a 25-year-old Senegalese asylum seeker was arrested after he attempted to rape a 21-year-old German woman at the Stachus, a large square in central Munich.

On April 16th, a 21-year-old asylum seeker from Iraq was sentenced to three years and ten months in prison for raping a 17-year-old girl at festival in the Bavarian town of Straubing in August 2014.

On April 7th, a 29-year-old asylum seeker was arrested for the attempted rape of a 14-year-old girl in the town of Alzenau.

On March 17th, two Afghan asylum seekers aged 19 and 20 were sentenced to five years in prison for the "particularly abhorrent" rape of a 21-year-old German woman in Kirchheim, a town near Stuttgart, on 17 August 2014.

On February 11th, a 28-year-old asylum seeker from Eritrea was sentenced to four years in prison for raping a 25-year-old German woman in Stralsund, along the Baltic Sea, in October 2014.

On February 1st, a 27-year-old asylum seeker from Somalia was arrested after attempting to rape women in the Bavarian town of Reisbach.

On January 16th, a 24-year-old Moroccan immigrant raped a 29-year-old woman in Dresden.

Dozens of other cases of rape and attempted rape — cases in which police are specifically looking for foreign perpetrators (German police often refer to them as Südländer, or "southerners") — remain unresolved. Following is a partial list just for August 2015:

On August 23rd, a "dark skinned" man attempted to rape a 35-year-old woman in Dortmund.

On August 17th, three male "southerners" attempted to rape a 42-year-old woman in Ansbach.

On August 16th, a male "southerner" raped a woman in Hanau.

On August 12th, a male "southerner" attempted to rape a 17-year-old woman in Hannover.

Also on August 12th, a male "southerner" exposed himself to a 31-year-old woman in Kassel. Police say a similar incident occurred in the same area on August 11th.

On August 10th, five men of "Turkish origin" attempted to rape a girl in Mönchengladbach.

Also on August 10th, a male "southerner" raped a 15-year-old girl in Rinteln.

On August 8th, a male "southerner" attempted to rape a 20-year-old woman in Siegen.

On August 3rd, a "North African" raped a seven-year-old girl in broad daylight in a park in Chemnitz, a city in eastern Germany.

On August 1st, a male "southerner" attempted to rape a 27-year-old woman in downtown Stuttgart.

Meanwhile, parents are being warned to look after their daughters. Police in the Bavarian town of Mering, where a 16-year-old-girl was raped on September 11th, have issued a warning to parents not to allow their children to go outside unaccompanied. They have also advised women not to walk to or from the train station alone because of its proximity to a refugee shelter.

The increase in sex crimes in Germany is being fueled by the preponderance of Muslim males among the mix of refugees/migrants entering the country.

In the Bavarian town of Pocking, administrators of the Wilhelm-Diess-Gymnasium have warned parents not to let their daughters wear revealing clothing in order to avoid "misunderstandings" with the 200

Muslim refugees housed in emergency accommodations in a building next to the school. The letter said:

"The Syrian citizens are mainly Muslim and speak Arabic. The refugees have their own culture. Because our school is directly next to where they are staying, modest clothing should be worn in order to avoid disagreements. Revealing tops or blouses, short shorts or miniskirts could lead to misunderstandings."

Clearly, the worst epidemic since the plague: These subhuman parasites, are postured to annihilate the entire free world. Indeed, this will be the battle of all battles, and nothing short of total victory is required to preserve our once-great European civilization. Good vs Evil, has never had a more profound significance. We must be steadfast and vigilant. We must defeat this Godless enemy, at all costs. I proudly wear my badge of Islamophobia! Death to Islam!

Germans and the rest of Europe don't have to worry about the invasion. They are being and will be bred out of existence. They will rape your women and girls until they give birth to only Muslims. The men of Europe better stand up or just put a gun in your mouths now and save us all the trouble of watching Europe die slowly. Its embarrassing and sad. Destroy your liberal leaders and throw out those that hate you but want to lead you.

This is disgusting - disgusting and real - I live in ingolstadt and I see the malice and perversity of Muslims every day: they harass women, even little girls, they yell obscenities at us, at schools our daughters are insulted and bullied by Muslim boys and even girls! Muslim little girls are very mean to German girls. But the most sickening aspect of this is the fact that nothing seems to wake Germans from the sweet rotten unreality where many are living: many Germans are so intoxicated with guilt and self-hatred that feel we deserve pain and misery inflicted by Muslims and other third world races just because we are White and German and "privileged" and because Nazis were White and Germans too... to many stupid Germans irrational disliked for their own race, culture and ancestors have now become a mechanism for self-esteem and purity, to them being German or European is a crime for which one must spend their life kissing non-white asses.

MUSLIM GANG RAPISTS IN FRANCE: "THE FRENCH ARE ALL SONS OF WHORES"

"They would not have touched the girl if she'd been a Turk."

Muslim colonialism. It's everywhere you don't want to be.

An eighteen-year-old girl got off the regional rail at Évry station, and made a call on her cell phone. Four individuals jumped on her, and dragged her to a near-by park. They stripped her of everything, then they undressed her and raped her, taking turns. An indescribable rape of barbaric cruelty. The gang of four tortured her for more than two hours before leaving her, bleeding. A driver in a passing car took her and called for help. She had enough strength to file a complaint.

Thanks to her detailed description and the video surveillance images, the police arrested the four suspects in less than twenty-four hours, and their DNA confirmed their guilt. The questioning began on March 31st in the afternoon. The four rapists were minors: two of them were thirteen, one fifteen, and one seventeen. Three Turkish brothers, one Moroccan. Special facts: the eldest, seventeen, had been released six months earlier after serving two thirds of a two-year sentence for the rape of the son of a gendarme sub-officer - and was released without surveillance: Now he is a repeat offender. Two of the others had been previously arrested for armed robbery. Four criminals, three repeat offenders - all minors!

During the questioning, and from what we know about the investigation, the minors did not express the slightest remorse. On the contrary, they expressed their hatred: yes, they would not have touched the girl if she had been a Turk; yes, they attacked her because she was French and "the French are all sons of whores." The judge who jailed them indicted them for gang rape and barbarity, but also, and this is very rare, for racism.

France has few useful responses to the decay of its society under the pressures of Islamic colonization. It can't impose the more brutal policing norms of the Muslim world and even in the Muslim world they don't suffice to protect Muslim women from violence. Rape and sexual harassment are endemic and they are curtailed only by chaperoning women or keeping them inside.

Rotherham Child Sexual Exploitation Scandal

Widespread organized child sexual abuse took place in Rotherham, South Yorkshire (England) between 1997 and 2013. Local investigations into the abuse began in 1999, although some reports were never finalized or made public by the authorities. In 2010, eight men were tried at Sheffield Crown Court for a series of sexual offences against young girls. Five men were convicted and jailed in November 2010. They had fostered relationships with girls as young as twelve, and raped them in cars and parks. The guilty men were told by the judge that, "the message must go out loud and clear that our society will not tolerate sexual predators preying on children." Razwan Razaq who had a previous conviction for indecently assaulting a young girl in his car and had breached a previous sexual offences prevention order was given the longest sentence. All five men were placed on the sex offenders' register.

A subsequent investigation based on confidential police and social services documents by The Times in 2012 reported that the child sex exploitation was much more widespread, and the Home Affairs Select Committee criticized the South Yorkshire Police force and Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council for their handling of the abuse. Rotherham's former MP, Denis MacShane, criticized the police for concealing the extent of the abuse, saying "it is clear that the internal trafficking of barely pubescent girls is much more widespread and I regret that the police did not tell Yorkshire MPs about their inquiries."

In November 2012, Rotherham Council identified 58 possible victims of sexual abuse. The director of Children and Young People's Services attributed the rise from 50 the previous year to increased public awareness. A national report by the Office of Children's Commissioner, also published in November, found that thousands of children were sexually abused by gangs in England each year.

In October 2012, the Home Affairs Select Committee criticized South Yorkshire's chief constable, David Compton, and one of its senior officers, Philip Etheridge, for their handling of child sex abuse. The committee heard evidence that three members of a family connected with the abuse of 61 girls were not convicted, and an unconvicted 22-year-old man was found in a car with a 12-year-old girl with indecent images of her on his phone. David Compton said that "ethnic origin" was not a factor in deciding whether to charge suspects - but that only means they have chosen to be ignorant to the problem and have narrowly focused their minds upon the more-so politically correct opinion of reverse-racism. The committee furthermore said that they were very concerned, as was the public.

In January 2013, the head of Rotherham Council, Martin Kimber, was summoned to the select committee to explain the lack of arrests for sexual abuse, despite South Yorkshire Police saying it was conducting several investigations and the council having identified 58 young girls at risk. The select committee issued a report on 18 October 2014, that claimed that files containing information on alleged failings by the authorities to investigate abuse had been stolen from the office of a Rotherham Council researcher in 2002. The allegations were made in private hearings of the committee, which concluded that both the council and South Yorkshire Police had ignored evidence about the scale of the abuse.

In November 2013 Rotherham Council commissioned Professor Alexis Jay, a former chief social work adviser to the Scottish government, to lead an independent inquiry into the its handling of cases involving child exploitation since 1997. Jay's initial report published on 26 August 2014 revealed that the number of children sexually exploited in Rotherham between 1997 and 2013 was, by "conservative estimate", at least 1400. According to the report, children as young as eleven were "raped by multiple perpetrators, abducted, trafficked to other cities in England, beaten and intimidated." Three previous inquiries — in 2002, 2003 and 2006 — had presented similar findings but, according to the report, had been "effectively suppressed" because officials either chose "not believe the data" or were bought off...!

Abuses described by the report included abduction, rape and sex trafficking of children. The inquiry team found examples of "children who had been doused in petrol and threatened with being set alight, threatened with guns, made to witness brutally violent rapes and threatened they would be next if they told anyone." The report revealed that "one child who was being prepared to give evidence received a text saying the perpetrator had her younger sister and the choice of what happened next was up to her. She withdrew her statements. At least two other families were terrorized by groups of perpetrators, sitting in cars outside the family home, smashing windows, making abusive and threatening phone calls. On some occasions child victims went back to perpetrators in the belief that this was the only way their parents and other children in the family would be safe. In the most extreme cases, no one in the family believed that the authorities could protect them. The report highlighted the role of taxi drivers in the town in facilitating the abuse.

Because the majority of perpetrators were Asian or of Pakistani heritage, several council staff described themselves as being nervous about identifying the ethnic origins of perpetrators for fear of being thought racist; others, the report noted, "remembered clear direction from their managers" not to make such identification. One Home Office researcher, attempting to raise concerns with senior police officers in 2002 about the level of abuse, was told not to do so again, and was subsequently suspended and sidelined.

The report noted that the police showed lack of respect for the White victims, who were deemed "undesirables."

Between 5000-7000 Gang Rapes Each Year in France

For several months, Nina and Stéphanie, aged 15 and 16, were the victims of gang rapes in the cellars of the Fontenay-sous-Bois estate. Nina was just 16 the first time she was raped. She was coming back from the cinema when she was accosted by some boys, barely older than she was: they started hitting her then abusing her. This horror would become her day-to-day experience: for six months, Nina was beaten, raped by several "jeunes" from the estate at the same time, every day. Others watched. They threatened her: if she speaks, they will burn her apartment and attack her little brother.

Mahamadou Doucouré wasn't just one of the leaders of the tournantes [gang rapes] "organized" in the Fontenay-sous-Bois estate, but without doubt the most violent. Doucouré, also suspected of murdering his ex-girlfriend and kidnapping her son, is one of the central figures in this trial.

13 years after the facts, Nina and Stéphanie are going to face their torturers. The latter admit having had sexual relations with them, but deny their forced character. For them, the two women were consenting: At sixteen, Nina was a "very pretty girl", slim, with long black hair, brown, almond-shaped eyes, almost slanting. She can't say how many men raped her. The justice system has found 18 of them, 15 of whom will face judgment in the Créteil Court of Assizes for Minors. Nina recalls that on some evenings, in the cellars or stair cages in the Fontenay-sous-Bois estate (Val-de-Marne), there were "at least 25" - witnesses say they saw "about 50" boys "forming a queue."

Between 5000 and 7000 gang rapes are said to be committed each year in France. According to the associations, if these crimes are often associated with the banlieues, in reality they are committed in all milieus.

Churchill compared the Muslim faith to rabies in a dog. The way they behave is worse than a rabid dog. The rabid dog can't help what they have, Muslims degrade women out of pleasure - and, like Jews, they get pleasure out of slaughtering un-stunned so-called "kosher" cattle. They love to bully that is why they always move around in gangs. Most bullies I have met are cowards... if the hat fits wear it.

Group-based rape of infidel females is a phenomenon encountered wherever Islam interacts with the rest of humanity. The character Mohammed is described as having practiced sexual slavery; and the Qur'an explicitly sanctions the sexual enslavement of infidel females. It has everything to do with Islam.

ISLAMIC RAPE EPIDEMIC IN NORWAY

Norway's experiment with multiculturalism and Muslim immigration has gone terribly wrong. Muslim radicalism has growing along with violence and intimidation against non-Muslims.

Several weeks before Anders Behring Breivik 2011 lone wolf terrorist attacks against the government, the civilian population, and a Workers' Youth League (AUF)-run summer camp Norway's largest political youth organization affiliated with the Norwegian Labour Party - in massacre in Norway, CBN News went to Oslo we went to investigate reports that that nation's experiment with Muslim immigration and multi-culturalism had gone terribly wrong... that Muslim radicalism was growing along with violence and intimidation against non-Muslims. In the wake of the killing. Norway's political left call the fear of Islamization a conspiracy theory. But the victims of Islam are real - and they're mostly Norway's women.

It is a problem that Norway has never faced before: Every woman in Norway does not have full human rights - there are women in Norway who are denied their rights by their families - and these live in fear for their lives.

At the Red Cross office in Oslo, Monica Berge-Tukh and Anne Marte Stifjeld take calls from Muslim girls who face honor violence, forced marriage or genital mutilation.

"We get calls from girls and we really get a bad feeling in our stomach that something is seriously wrong," Berge-Tukh told CBN News. "Most of the girls tell us 'I never thought about it' or 'I never thought it would happen because I live in Norway.'"

They not only live in Norway but were born in Norway and speak Norwegian. Still, their rights are not protected and they are controlled by their families.

"A lot of them have been threatened and beaten," Berge-Tukh explained. "They tell us about a lot of social control, so when they become like 10 or 12 years old (their family members) start following her to school just to control that she is not having any contact with boys because 'good girls don't do that.'"

An Eye-Opening Encounter

Hege Storhaug was a self-described "naïve left-wing journalist" when an encounter with an immigrant woman changed her life and her career. In 1992, as a journalist, she met a young Norwegian-born Pakistani woman, only eighteen-years-old, and she had been married gunpoint in Pakistan to a second cousin - Storhaug was so shocked when the girl said: "My parents were willing to kill me if I didn't enter into this marriage, to protect their own honour.

Storhaug now works full-time to protect immigrant women and girls from forced marriage genital mutilation and honor violence. Women, she says, have been abandoned by the Norwegian government and deprived of their rights as citizens - like four Norwegian girls all sent to

Gambia for genital mutilation in the jungle tradition. "Their parents just dumped them in Gambia, their country of origin where the girls, ages 3-9, were all genitally mutilated," Storhaug told CBN News. "They have been stripped of the possibility to become a full member of this society, and we have allowed it, we have allowed it."

Storhaug, who works on behalf of the rights of women, has been called a racist and Islamophobe by the political left in Norway.

Rape Epidemic

Something else that Muslim immigration appears to have brought to Norway is what some here call "a rape epidemic." Police statistics show that in the capital of Oslo 100 percent of assault rapes between strangers were committed by immigrant non-western males and nine out of ten of their victims were native Norwegian women. To protect themselves, some blond-haired Norwegian women have reportedly begun dying their hair black and many travel only in groups. [This is sadly reminiscent of the New York Son of Sam killings in 1976-77: David Berkowitz targeted young women with long brown hair, forcing many to dye their hair blonde and having it cut short in a bid to stay safe.]

Kristin Spitznogle is a therapist who has counseled some of the rape victims - and she's been attacked in the Norwegian media for saying what many will not - but the rape problem is primarily Muslim men raping non-Muslim women - any woman which they deem immodestly attired; i.e., exposing any flesh. "These men do not attack their own," she noted. "They attack Norwegian women and a liberal culture they will not accept."

Non-Muslims 'Fair Game'

Spitznogle has been attacked in the Norwegian media for saying what many will not: that the assault rape problem is primarily Muslim men raping non-Muslim women. Any woman who does not dress modestly and wear the Muslim headscarf could be considered by some Muslim men to be "fair game."

"For some the hijab is a symbolic marker that separates the submissive proper Muslim women from what they see as the Norwegian 'whores.' When I say 'whores,' I'm really just referring to their own words. This is what they told journalists."

Kristin Spitznogle

Spitznogle says Norway's left-wing establishment has been blaming the rape victims because the whole notion that Islamic culture is dangerous to women is very politically incorrect!

Hanne Herland is author of the bestselling book Alarm! Thoughts on a Culture in Crisis: "Some of them are excellent, but not all values from Islamic countries are excellent to bring into the European society," Herland warned. "And I think that many times Norwegians fear speaking about that for fear of being called a racist." [Editorial note: The Muslim values which I am most tolerant of concern my own opinions on anti-Semitism, anti-homosexuality, and moderation for women in society.]

Trouble on the Horizon?

Not all values from Islamic countries or cultures are excellent to bring into the European Society - and Norwegians, like most White peoples, dread speaking out about Islam in fear of being labeled racist... but it's hard to call a Muslim immigrant a racist for speaking out against his fellow Muslims

Walid al-Kubaisi is a respected Norwegian journalist and a Muslim who came from Iraq. He is concerned about radical Islamic elements within an otherwise law abiding Muslim community in Norway: "We have a problem," he said emphatically. "All deny. Nobody says that we have a big problem. But this will give a bad result in the future."

As in other European cities, parts of Oslo are now Muslims only zones and subject to Shari'a law and the rule of local Imams. Most of these areas have become "No Go Zones" for ambulances and fire fighters and even police!

"Most of the areas where the Muslim is the majority, the Norwegian feels that they are not in their country, that they're not in Norway. They feel like a Muslim country."
Walid al-Kubaisi

When CBN News interviewed al-Kubaisi in June 2011, no one had any idea that a crazed gunman would start killing people over the issue of Muslim immigration. But al-Kubaisi made what now feels like a chilling prediction - a backlash against immigrants.

with the Muslim is majority the net we GN feel that that not in that country that not in Norway when we interviewed while leaving in June no one had any idea that a crazed gunman [Breivik] would start killing people because if Muslim immigration... but al-Kubaisi made what now feels like a chilling prediction: "I am not a prophet, but something will happen. I don't know. But I feel it."

There will be a backlash reaction - a clash of civilizations - an unholy White genocide - a Zionist-orchestrated Muslim jihad - a worldwide unholy civil race war in every White country with a European heritage... and our quisling politicians on the political left in Europe are using the Oslo massacre to stifle criticism of Islam. But not talking about it won't make the problem go away. Meanwhile, native Norwegians are being brainwashed, like the rest of us, by the left-wing-dominated Zio-media and schools.

OUTRAGE IN SWEDEN

Somali Muslim Who Raped Dead Swedish Woman Won't Be Deported

A 34 year old immigrant from Somalia was arrested for savagely attacking a woman next to the parking garage of a Sheraton hotel in Sweden. The woman died while being raped. Police say the perpetrator continued to rape the woman's corpse well after she had died. The Somalian was apprehended by police while still in the act of raping the murdered woman - and it wasn't his first rape. Sweden and Norway are in the middle of a massive epidemic of violent rapes. Crime statistics show that rapes in both countries are overwhelmingly perpetrated by Muslim immigrants.

2013 figures were given in a recent report by Swedish Public Radio. In the first seven months of 2013, over 1000 Swedish women reported being raped by Muslim immigrants. Over 300 of those were under the age of 15. The number of rapes is up 16% compared to 2012 numbers.

"He might commit crimes down there if he were to be deported."

District Prosecutor Daniel Jonsson has chosen not to produce any extradition request. When the Free Times asked Jonsson if he, in the light of the possibility that the 34-year-old will be committing more rapes in Sweden, still feels he has no responsibility to try to get the man deported, he replied no. "I do not understand why a Somali woman in that case would be less valuable than a Swedish woman in this context. He might commit crimes down there if he were to be deported," said Jonsson.

In some objective moral calculus, a Somali woman may have the same value as a Swedish woman. But that's not the point. As a prosecutor, Jonsson is supposed to protect Swedish society, not Somali society. This rapist is a problem produced by Somali Muslim society. It's best equipped to deal with him. The fact that Jonsson does not feel that he has a special priority to protect his civil society is the problem. It's the problem that makes this kind of migration terror possible.

The accused man is a citizen of Somalia and came to Sweden in 2007. He has already amassed a lengthy criminal records while in his new homeland.

The first time the man was prosecuted for offences was in February 2008 when he was sentenced to probation and fined for drug offences.

Then he continued to commit crimes more or less continuously. His records shows that he has been prosecuted for more than 40 crimes, including sexual assault, theft, unlawful threats and a very large number of petty theft and drug offenses.

According to an indictment that District Prosecutor Daniel Jonsson filed in the Stockholm District Court last week, the man raped a sleeping, drunk woman anally on 13 August 2013. Then the man, already the following month, had committed another rape. According to the indictment he raped a woman on 27 September 2013 in a parking garage in the Sheraton Hotel in Stockholm.

There are some 40,000 Somali settlers in Sweden. And that's just the beginning.

Muslim Rape Gangs roaming Europe seeking White rape victims

It is common for criminal Muslim immigrants to form rape gangs and go looking for naive young White girls - wonderful children to abuse. They approach the innocent girls in the streets and lure them into vehicles, drug them, threaten them and violently rape them, often recording the villainous rape jihad on their I-phones. Rape is an accepted and common practice in Muslim communities - and Muslim immigrants are dramatically increasing the rape statistics in Europe, North America, and elsewhere wherever they impose themselves.

Karen Stosur James was just 11-years-old when she was befriended by an Asian man 10 years her senior - a friendship which began with gifts in rides in fast cars quickly turned into something very different. "One day she came back, and I'll never forget, she came walking up the road [ ] still drugged up. She'd been taken to Manchester (Eng.) that night and then brought back the next morning - clearly she had been raped. "I was sent a smartphone video of three Asian men assaulting my daughter," said her mother. "They were calling her White trash; they were calling her a prostitute, saying she was nothing but a dog."

A large number of police were at Nottingham Crown Court as the men were sentenced. Their horrific crimes have caused much public anger. They're incredibly dangerous men... not only with the violence, but they use intimidation to sexual abuse and assault girls - they pose a clear threat to their young victims who cannot be identified.

After the trial, one girl said: "They first approached me [ ] and took me to a park. Even in the beginning I thought they were scary but I was insecure and lonely... my advice to other girls is: "Don't take anyone at face value."

The two men were both married with children and kept their activities secrets from their families. During three trials, a gang of men were convicted of related offenses. Police believe the gang could have targeted up to 60 victims! who were used, abused and terrified.

Rape Jihad in the Netherlands

Seven girls laugh together at the supper table. One talks of her sister, a fashion model signed with a famous London agency; another mentions her married brother, an artist in the north of England; a third — age 17, with blonde hair tucked under an Alice band — says she plans to become a beautician on a cruise ship. At the small house, the blinds are closed so no one can peep in. Two terriers and a bull mastiff bark ferociously if there is a footstep outside the bolted front door. For these middle-class girls, groomed into sex slavery by street gangs, have been rescued and are living in a safe house a few miles from De Wallen, the notorious red-light area of Holland's capital, Amsterdam.

Too ashamed to tell parents or teachers, the girls are cynically isolated from their old lives and swept into prostitution. They are the lucky ones. Thousands of other young Dutch girls, some only 11-or-12-years-old, are still in the power of the prowling gangs after a controversial social experiment to legalize brothels. In a chilling parallel to the scandal sweeping Britain's towns and cities, where a multitude of girls have been lured into sex-for-sale rings run by gangs, the Dutch pimps search out girls at school gates and in cafes, posing as 'boyfriends' promising romance, fast car rides and restaurant meals.

The men ply their victims with vodka and drugs. They tell them lies: that they love them and their families don't care for them. Then, the trap set, they rape them with other gang members, often taking photos and videos of the attack to blackmail the girl into submission. Befuddled, frightened, and too ashamed to tell parents or teachers, the girls are cynically isolated from their old lives and swept into prostitution.

So dangerous are the gangs that the girls at the safe house never venture out alone, and when they have a coffee together in the back garden they are not allowed to talk about their past in case neighbours overhear.

The lover boy phenomenon

Holland's newly legal sex industry was quickly infiltrated by street-grooming gangs with one target: the under-age virgin who can be sold for sex. 'You never know who has big ears,' says Anita de Wit (48), the mother of three who set up the safe house last month - it is thought to be the first of its kind in the world. 'The gangs can kill, and will try to get these girls back because they earn them money. We do not want them coming here to harm them.'

Anything-goes Amsterdam has long been hailed as a sex mecca. The red-light district attracts thousands of customers, many of them tourists, who walk through alleys where half-naked prostitutes prance in the windows of some 300 brothels illuminated with scarlet bulbs. A century ago, the brothels were banned to stop the exploitation of women by criminal gangs of Dutch men. But gradually the sex establishments crept back, with the authorities turning a blind eye.

In 2000, after pressure from prostitutes (demanding recognition as sex workers with employment rights) and Holland's liberal intelligentsia (championing the choice of women to do what they wished with their bodies), the brothels were legalized. The working girls got permits, medical care, and now there are 5000 in the red-light district. But things went badly wrong. Holland's newly legal sex industry was quickly infiltrated by street-grooming gangs with one target: the under-age girl virgin who can be sold for sex.

The men in the gangs are dubbed — incongruously — 'lover boys,' because of their distinct modus operandi of making girls fall in love with them before forcing them into prostitution at private flats or houses all over Holland, and in the window brothels. The lover boy phenomenon has appalled Dutch society, not least because of the sheer numbers of girls involved.

This week a report into our own sex gangs was criticized for discounting the link between Asian gangs and the sexual exploitation of White and mixed-race girls. As Lodewijk Asscher (38), a leading politician, says: "Hard-line criminal behaviour is happening behind those windows. Girls are physically abused if they don't work hard enough. It is slavery, which was abolished a long time ago in the Netherlands." He has championed new rules in Amsterdam's red-light district. Prostitutes will sign a register and the minimum age for sex workers will be raised from 18 to 21, to try to stop girls being forced to work by the gangs. Holland hopes the rot will be halted.

Last year, 242 lover boy crimes were investigated by police, half of them involving the forced prostitution of girls under age 18. Campaigner Anita de Wit says this is a fraction — 'one per cent' — of the true number: "There are thousands of girls being preyed on by male gangs in Holland," she says.

Anita visits schools to warn girls exactly what a lover boy looks like, and makes no bones of the fact that most of the gangs are operated by Dutch-born Moroccan and Turkish men - Muslims.

"I am not politically correct. I am not afraid of being called a racist, which would be untrue. I tell the girls that lover boys are young, dark-skinned and very good looking. They will have lots of money and bling as well as a big car. They will give out cigarettes and vodka. They will tell a girl that she is beautiful.

'The gangs know who to pick out: the girl with the confidence problems, with the glasses, or who looks overweight. They flatter her and seem like the "knight in shining armour."' She is drawn to her new boyfriend like a magnet.'

Editorial Note: I grew up on the Canadian prairies and the city Injuns would show up on the reserves with shiny cowboy boots, money and drugs and booze, full of stories of the "big city" and lure the young Native girls into prostitution - too many of them disappearing or becoming worn-out and used-up and good-for-nothing as a result.

With the new minimum age and register of prostitutes, the winds of change are blowing in Amsterdam's red-light industry. Anita's bluntness is a far cry from the approach in Britain, where political correctness has stopped police and social workers telling girls the same home truths: that in many towns, particularly in the north of England, the handsome men chatting them up at the school gate are very likely to be of Pakistani descent. They, too, ply the girls with alcohol and gifts, pretending to be genuine boyfriends. This week a report into our own sex gangs — by Sue Berelowitz, Deputy Children's Commissioner for England — was criticized by the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC), among others, for discounting the evident link between Asian gangs and the sexual exploitation of White and mixed-race girls. Berelowitz chose to downplay the race factor, despite official figures showing a worrying percentage of men involved in this type of sex crime are of this heritage.

Mohammed Shafiq, director of the Lancashire-based Ramadhan Foundation, a charity working for ethnic harmony, has just visited Holland to see the work of Anita de Wit and her charity 'Say No to Lover Boys Now,' which believes that girls should be warned where the danger lies — for their own sakes. He has complained that the British authorities treat the subject as taboo because of fears of being branded racist: "That is wrong. These gangs of men should be treated as criminals whatever their race," he says.

In Holland, as in Britain, the abusers are drawn from a tiny minority of their communities — which are appalled by their crimes. But the lover boys seem to see White girls as worthless, to be abused without a second thought. Anita began her campaign when her own daughter, Angelique, then aged 15, was lured into a sex gang after meeting a 21-year-old Moroccan boy at a coffee bar near her school.

In Holland, as in Britain, the abusers are drawn from a tiny minority of their communities — which are appalled by their crimes. Anita was divorced and running a restaurant in a village outside Amsterdam when it all began. It was eight in the evening and Angelique came into the restaurant with three male friends; she said one of them was her new boyfriend, Mohammed: 'He had long curly hair, was very handsome and polite to me,' remembers Anita.

"Angelique asked if she could take the three boys back home for a coffee, and I said yes. I was due back at eleven that night and I thought my other two children — Angelique's younger brother, who was 13, and her older sister — would be there." But when Anita got home, she found that every bottle in the drinks cabinet was empty. Angelique was lying in bed drunk. Mohammed and his two pals had disappeared. Although Anita did not know it then, Angelique had been raped by two of the men. The other man had taken her son to play football in the park to get him out of the house. Angelique's older sister was, in fact, staying with friends.

"I was horrified," says Anita. "Angelique lied, saying she had just had too much to drink. I was annoyed she had been drinking at all. I said I did not want Mohammed at my house ever again. We had a row. But that is the classic technique used by the lover boys — they deliberately engineer a rift between the girl and her parents." From then on, Angelique's behaviour changed: She went missing from school - if she did go to class, Mohammed and the lover boys would be waiting to pick her up in a big car with dark windows and false number plates. Her teachers complained to Anita, but Angelique was in love with Mohammed and at war with the teachers and her mother. She would disappear from home for hours, often coming back only late at night. Sometimes, she would go missing for days, saying she had been with friends. In fact, Angelique had been sleeping with a host of Moroccan men and earning money for her 'boyfriend,' Mohammed. "Her mobile phone would ring continuously, all day and through the night, too. She would even take it into the loo [watercloset/bathroom] with her.

"When I looked at it later, there were violent texts saying: If you don't come out now, you are for it and your family, too," recalls Anita. After several months, Anita rang the police for help. Her daughter was taken to the family court where a judge placed her under a curfew at home. She had to report to her mother every two hours.

"Angelique would come in say hello, and then run out of the house again," says Anita. "The judge said she had to leave her mobile phone downstairs at night. But the gang just gave her another one, and the men kept ringing her. They gave her cannabis and she became dependent on them for it."

The judge, in desperation, sent Angelique to a youth prison where, for 11 months, she used her phone card to keep in touch with Mohammed, but gradually the relationship fizzled out. When, at last, she was moved to an open centre for troubled youngsters, Anita hoped for the best. But her daughter met another lover boy there. He was called Rashid and was a stooge planted to recruit girls by the gangs. He persuaded her to escape from the centre and together they hitchhiked to Rotterdam. There, Angelique found that Rashid was also part of a sex gang. She was put in a seedy house and again made to work as a prostitute.

"She was forced to swallow 14 ecstasy tablets a day and take the date-rape drug, GHB. The gang beat her with a baseball bat if she refused to sleep with the men who were brought to her. They dyed her brown hair with kitchen bleach because they said men would pay more for blondes. She's never told me how many men she had to go with," says Anita. After six weeks, Angelique escaped. She ran to a shop and called her mother, who brought her home. Yet — incredibly enough — even then the lover boys came after her.

She visited the city centre with a girlfriend and a stranger, a young Moroccan, asked her out for a date; he promised Angelique that he was a proper boyfriend, that he loved her: but he was grooming her, too. The Moroccan plied her with drugs, and asked her to live with him in a flat near the red-light district. When Angelique, by now 18, agreed, he said he was in debt and put her to work in the De Wallen window brothels.

"I went to see her in the windows," says Anita. "I had to keep in touch with my daughter. It was only in January of last year that she realized she had been exploited by the gang and returned home at last."

Angelique's story is terrifying... but, at the safe house, there are equally disturbing tales. There is Eline, who was an 18-year-old virgin when she met a Turkish lover boy at a New Year party at her local youth club. Eline thought she was in love with him, but within a few weeks the rest of his group had gang-raped her on a patch of waste land, photographed their crime, and were threatening to tell her parents if she did not sleep with other men to earn them money.

Beatrice met her lover boy as she rode her bike to a new school. She was 12 years old. He was leaning against his car outside; with a big gold chain round his neck, he looked like an actor in a rap video. He was back a few days later, and told her she was pretty. The fourth time they met, she agreed to go for a drive. He took her to a house where he raped her. He told her she was now his prostitute, his property, and that their relationship was perfectly normal. By 14, Beatrice had slept with dozens of men and, unbeknown to her civil servant parents, was even coerced into acting as an agent for her lover boy's gang by introducing them to other girls.

The girls in the safe house, who are aged between 15 and 25, have now escaped from the horrors of their past. They are learning to live again. And with the new minimum age and register of prostitutes, the winds of change are blowing in Amsterdam's red-light industry. But Eline shakes her head a little sadly as she says: "The lover boys are always one step ahead. They are making a fortune from these young girls. It is everyone's duty to tell the truth about what is happening — particularly to potential victims."

It is a sobering lesson not only that political correctness must not prevent people voicing their fears about grooming gangs, but also that Holland's liberal approach to sex has backfired disastrously on many of these damaged victims.

Sweden Being Raped To Death By Muslim Migrants

Once dubbed the great humanitarian power by the ex-prime Minister Fredrik Reinfeldt, Sweden is on the edge of a brutal collapse due to a wave of entitled immigrants... raping Sweden's women at a rate of 53.2%. Many of these perpetrators who commit these rapes are on the edge of society.

In the past five years, asylum seekers have been bleeding the economy of the country dry. Sweden this is the number one rape capital of Europe - some say that this is because Sweden is very progressive in the way of destructive patriarchal norms, which is why its' definition of rape is broader than in other countries - and more considerate to the victims. Others say that it's because of Sweden's massive levels of immigration, where they import thousands of people from countries in the Middle East and Africa... places that don't really have the best views on women's rights. But it doesn't matter who is right! the Swedish people will never know who is right because they aren't allowed to talk about it. In Sweden everything is considered racist - and economic breakdowns, once they happen, always happen very fast.

Danish historian Lars Hedegaard warned that the final consequence of the west and above all Sweden's immigration policies is that the economy will collapse - because who is going to pay for it all? Increasing taxes on wage earners and Sweden to pay for the influx of illegal immigrants is not enough.

In August, finance minister Magdalena Anderson said: "The government is looking at borrowing large sums of money from the European Investment Bank to pay for illegal immigration."

"Why has one-government-after-another chosen to spend Swedish taxpayers money to support and shelter citizens of other countries? whilst some of them have tried to kill us?" asked Ingrid Carlqvist, on 23 August 2015, after a Swedish woman and her son were stabbed to death at an IKEA store in Vasteras (Sweden) by Abraham Ukbagabir, an illegal immigrant from Eritrea.

Ukbagabir said "he lost control after learning he was going to be deported to Italy..." so he killed the innocent woman and her son...! Prior to the murders, Sweden's third-largest city, Malmö, experienced ethnic violence between groups of immigrants. The gangs - described as youths by the Swedish Zio-media - use guns, bombs and hand grenades to mark their turf. In August (2015), the Swedish Migration Board [ ] recorded almost as many reports of threats and violence by asylum seekers as throughout the whole of 2014 - according to Swedish newspaper Dagens Nyheter. Yet, in Sweden, which does not usually report the nationality of rapists, a just-released study by Swedish police revealed that Muslim men who constitute only 2% of the population are responsible for 77.6% of rapes... giving once peaceful Sweden the highest rape rate in Europe and the second highest in the world next to South Africa, which at 53.2% per 100,000 i9s six times higher than the United States. Statistics now suggest that 1 out of every 4 Swedish women will be raped by a Muslim.

Currently illegal immigrants are being housed in former royal mansions and Sweden is building housing for the chaotic violent army taking over and raping their own country.

1 in 4 Swedish Women Will Be Raped by Muslims as Sexual Assaults Increase 500%

Sweden has imported huge numbers of Muslim immigrants with catastrophic effect. Sweden's population grew from 9 million to 9.5 million in the years 2004-2012, mainly due to immigration from "countries like Afghanistan, Iraq and Somalia". 16% of all newborns have mothers born in non-Western countries. Sweden now has the second highest number of rapes in the world, after South Africa, which at 53.2 per 100,000 is six times higher than the United States. Statistics now suggest that 1 out of every 4 Swedish women will be raped.

In 2003, Sweden's rape statistics were higher than average at 9.24, but in 2005 they shot up to 36.8 and by 2008 were up to 53.2. Now they are almost certainly even higher as Muslim immigrants continue forming a larger percentage of the population. With Muslims represented in as many as 77 percent of the rape cases and a major increase in rape cases paralleling a major increase in Muslim immigration, the wages of Muslim immigration are proving to be a sexual assault epidemic by a misogynistic ideology.

The statistics are skewed by urban centers where the Islamic colonists cluster. In Stockholm this summer there was an average of 5 rapes a day. Stockholm has gone from a Swedish city to a city that is one-third immigrant and is between a fifth and a quarter Muslim.

Muslim gang-rapes across Europe under-reported in press

High profile-gang rapes in India were in the headlines since December 2012. The phenomenon is growing across Europe too, but tends to be under reported due to the high incidence of Muslim perpetrators which makes it politically incorrect to mention.

In December 2011 a Swedish mother-of-two was subjected to a brutal gang-rape by 12 Afghan immigrants in a refugee camp in Mariannelund. Reports stated: "The rape was oral, anal and vaginal sometimes with three rapists inside her at the same time while everybody was cheering and clapping. The gruesome rape marathon lasted for 7 hours. 11 suspect may have been involved taking turns while drinking and getting high on drugs. The asylum seekers were cheering and clapping their hands during the rape marathon while calling the victim whore and slut."

According to Vimmerby Tidning: "The woman went into shock while the rapes were still underway, and has since been in a heavily traumatized state. She is now subject to nightmares and panic attacks, and lives in a psychiatric clinic. She is bound to a wheelchair due to damages to her abdomen, and suffers from faecal incontinence."

Ten Horrifying Stories of Muslims Gang Raping White Woman

At Husbybadet bath house, in Stockholm (Sweden), as many as 20 Muslim men gang-raped an 11-year-old girl. A mother was hosting a birthday party at a public bath/swim center for a group of 11-and-12-year-old children. Up to 20 Arab and African men, Muslims from a nearby refugee center - managed by Attendo Care - arrived at the public bath. The refugees came from very primitive environments - these vicious animals immediately began making sexual advances upon the children. After awhile they began to assault the children and ripping their swimsuits off - some of the 12-year-old boys very valiantly tried to defend the girls... but were beaten up by the savages. Eventually, the men cornered one of the little girls in a grotto in the bathhouse and gang raped her. The police were called and the refugees and their handler questioned - they had no identification papers. The police refused to make any arrests. The bath house was remodeled in 2006 after more rapes occurred.

The open door policy of Sweden has turned it into the rape capital of the Europe. The government, though, refuses to deal with the problem. Criminal asylum seekers are not even expelled from the country. The

The main perpetrator Rafi Bahaduri (25) had already committed four other rapes in Sweden. The case is not unique. There is a growing trend of gang-rapes perpetrated against white women by Muslim rapists.

In the U.K. there has been a steady stream of cases where primarily under-privileged young English girls have been targeted, groomed and raped by gangs of what the British press euphemistically refers to as Asian men. However, the published names of the perpetrators are primarily of Pakistan and Afghanistan origin when the gang rapists appear in court. The Asian gangs do not contain rapists from China, Japan, and the Philippines.

Cases have been reported in Rochdale, Rotherham, Derby, Bradford, Blackpool - the list goes on. An article regarding the phenomenon in Standpoint notes: "According to some of the mothers, a fear of being branded racist makes many of the police and social services reluctant to investigate the crimes as organized and connected. One mother from Rotherham, whose 14-year-old daughter was groomed into prostitution and multiply raped during a 12-month period, said that almost every man convicted of these crimes in the north of England is from Pakistan but that the authorities insist that it is not relevant."

More and more cases are reported across Europe. The following is just a very small sample (some figures indicate 5000 gang-rapes occur in France alone each year). In October 2011 a British woman was brutally gang-raped by five Afghan refugees in Banja Koviljaca, Serbia. According to the Austrian Times the men were living in a local refugee centre housing 2500 illegal immigrants.

In June 2011 a 14-year-old Norwegian girl, Eva Helgetun, committed suicide after being gang-raped by three teenage migrants.

In January 2013 a 22-year-old woman was gang-raped by five men in Stockholm, the first of three reported gang-rapes in the city. Eight Muslim male teenagers were arrested on suspicion of aggravated rape in connection with the three incidents.

In March 2013 a British tourist was gang-raped by three Arab men in a Spanish resort.

In a high-profile disturbing case in France, where two teenage girls were the prolonged victims of constant gang-rapes by dozens of Muslim teenagers [Cranmer] states that all the men involved that were eventually convicted were Muslims which leads him to question: "Why is the issue of gang-rape committed by young men identified as belonging to a particular minority background consistently suppressed? Are there reporting restrictions? Infringement of their human rights? A conspiracy of silence?"

The silence across Europe regarding the growing number of gang-rapes against white women by Muslim men and grooming gangs is indeed deafening.

politicians feign cluelessness - and betray their native-born subject peoples - all the while, criminals are free to do as they wish because convictions are so rare: Only 3% of rapists are ever convicted.

England has probably the most massive Muslim rape and prostitution problem in Europe, in large part because the British government refuses to acknowledge it. Two years ago, the British online paper, The Daily Mail reported that hundreds of White British girls were used as prostitutes, rape victims, and sex slaves by Muslim men (whom the British refer to as "Asians"): Police and social services have been accused of fuelling a culture of silence which has allowed hundreds of young White girls to be exploited by Asian men for sex. Agencies have identified a long-term pattern of offending by gangs of men, predominantly from the British Pakistani community, who have befriended and abused hundreds of vulnerable girls aged 11 to 16. Experts claim the statistics represent a mere fraction of a 'tidal wave' of offending in counties across the Midlands and the north of England which has been going on for more than a decade.

The details of what happened – the methodical way the men go about grooming the girls and the way the girls are subsequently used by men across England – make for horrifying reading. Not all of the men convicted have been Muslim, but the majority have been: The grooming usually begins with older groups of men befriending girls aged from 11-to-16 they meet on the street. In a typical scenario, the victim is initially treated as a girlfriend and showered with presents and attention. But the relationship quickly becomes more sinister as the abuser plies the child with drink and drugs before effectively pimping her out to friends and associates. The worst cases involve young girls being moved around the country to be repeatedly abused. Charities and agencies working in conjunction with the police to help victims of sexual abuse in such cases have publicly denied there is a link between ethnicity and the on-street grooming of young girls by gangs and pimps. But researchers identified 17 court prosecutions since 1997, 14 of them in the past three years, involving the on-street grooming of girls aged 11 to 16 by groups of men. The victims came from 13 towns and cities and in each case two-or-more men were convicted of offences. In total, 56 people, with an average age of 28, were found guilty of crimes including rape, child abduction, indecent assault and sex with a child. Three of the 56 were White, 53 were Asian. Of those, 50 were Muslim and a majority were members of the British Pakistani community.

In Australia, in 2000, gang rapes of non-Muslim women by Muslim men became so overwhelming that they were eventually lumped together under the heading of “Sydney gang rapes”: The perpetrators were a group of Lebanese Australian Muslims that specifically targeted non-Muslim women and teenage girls, some as young as 14. The six rapes occurred over a one month period. The details of these attacks make for stomach-churning reading: One woman was taken to 3 separate locations, and was eventually raped 25 times by 14 men over a period of 6 hours. A 16-year-old girl was raped by 2 men, before an audience of 12 men... they ended the attack against her by holding a gun to her head and kicking her in the stomach.

Comments that the men made during the rapes made it clear that these were intended as racial terrorism attacks. Victims heard such things as: “You deserve it because you’re an Australian,” and “I’m going to fuck you Leb style.”

In 2012, in Germany, two Muslim Turkish teens gang-raped a 16-year-old girl in a parking lot. It was an attack of almost unthinkable savagery. When they finished raping the girl, they then assaulted her with a bottle. Even when the bottle broke, they continued their attack, eventually severing her intestine and her uterus. The girl survived, but her rectum was so destroyed by the attack that physicians had to create an artificial one for her. She was also rendered sterile by the attack. German privacy laws meant that the attack went entirely unreported in the German press.

Holland has a growing problem with a Muslim-run sex trade traffic in teen girls and young women. The road to prostitution for these girls always starts with gang rape. The pattern is the same... the gangs are almost always operated by Dutch-born Moroccan and Turkish men. The men give their victims alcohol and drugs, use lies to separate them from their families, gang rape them (often taking photos for blackmail purposes), and then place the girls in prostitution. Having been abused, isolated, and demeaned, the girls stay in Holland’s legal brothels, working as sex slaves for their Muslim pimps. Some of these girls are as young as 11 or 12 years old. Only the lucky few manage to escape.

Until the Muslim riots in the Paris suburbs in 2005, few people outside of France had been aware of the large Muslim population living in almost exclusively Muslim townships just outside of Paris. These banlieues had become mini-North African villages, that had high unemployment and, quite often, almost no contact with the larger French culture. In 2012, the banlieues were in the French news again when 14 Muslim men were accused of repeatedly gang raping 2 teenage girls over a 2-year-period (from 1999 through 2001) in one of these suburbs. In her complaint, the women, known only as Nina, alleged that it had started when she was 16 and was grabbed off the streets, and subjected to scores of rapes by local boys. Nina alleged that there were always as many as 25 boys present and, despite her screaming, crying, and vomiting, they would stand in lines of as many as 50 boys to take their turn with her. Because the boys who perpetrated these vile attacks were minors, they were all acquitted. The 4 adult men who also participated had equally ridiculous outcomes: Two went to prison for a year, one for six months, and the fourth had a suspended sentence.

In Norway, in 2011, 14-year-old Eva Helgetun was assaulted and gang-raped by three teenage boy “of foreign origin,” which is how the politically correct papers in Sweden refer to Muslim rapists. Although she was able to escape her attackers without any obvious physical injuries, Eva was so terribly damaged by the assault, she committed suicide four weeks later.

A 31-year-old British woman, while on vacation in Spain with her boyfriend, was raped by three Muslim men. She had been attending a party at a popular Costa del Sol resort, when the men snatched her from the busy street and raped her. One of the rapists was around 70-years-old, while the other two were significantly younger.

In a case that shocked America, when TV journalist Lara Logan went to report on the Arab Spring in Egypt, she was grabbed off the street, while a crowd of 200 hundred near-by people celebrated Mubarak’s resignation. First reports indicated that the men had simply roughed her up. Logan later admitted that she sustained a severe sexual assault before a group of women joined with approximately 20 Egyptian soldiers to rescue her.

Muslim Gangs Drug & Rape Children All Over The UK Britain Finally Starts To Wake Up

Two ring-leaders of a sex abuse gang [ ] are facing indefinite prison sentences for what the judge called “a reign of terror on young schoolgirls in the town.” It is the latest in a number of prosecutions that are being held up as evidence that Asian gangs, specifically Pakistani men, represent a particular threat to young British girls today, which is not being confronted due to a misguided sense of political correctness. Jack Straw, former Foreign Minister and Justice Minister said: “British Pakistani men often see white girls as easy meat.”

Jack has been looking at an issue rife with controversy and conflicting views.

“He was calling her white trash - calling her a prostitute and saying that she was nothing but a dog.”

There is a specific problem which involves Pakistani-heritage men who target vulnerable young White girls. Its not an ethnic-based problem. Karen Stosur Jane was just 11 when she was befriended by an Asian man ten years her senior; friendship quickly turned into something very different. It happened after she started going missing for two-and-three days on end... until, one day, she came walking up the road, still drugged and beaten up. She had been taken to Manchester that night and then brought back the next morning - supra. Then came the intimidation as a parade of Muslim men harassed the girl’s poor family - different men coming at all hours of the day and night to threaten the poor girl and her mother, Jane.

Hillary Wilmers, the chair of CROP (Coalition for the Removal Of Pimping), an organization set up to help parents a sexually exploited children: “We’ve been working over the last vent 7-8-9 years with over 400 families - and of those families, mostly in the northwest and the northeast, 96-97% of those 400 families are White - and the perpetrators are in the vast majority from Pakistani. Others have recently pointed to a series of high-profile prosecutions of Muslim men as evidence - but there are no official statistics. Nevertheless, MP Jack Straw says he knows from his own constituency that this is a real problem.

It is a specific problem in some areas - Pakistanis are not the only people who commit sexual offenses... and, overwhelmingly, the sex offenders wings prisons are full of White sex offenders - but there is a specific problem which involves Pakistani-heritage men who target vulnerable young white girls. We need to get the Pakistani community to see and to think much more clearly about why this is going on! to be more open about the problems that are leading to a number of Pakistani-heritage men thinking that it's OK to target White female children in this way. These filthy sods are in Western society now, in any event, but unlike any other young men fizzing-and-popping with testosterone who want some outlet for that... the Pakistani-heritage girls are considered off limits - and they are expected to marry a Pakistani girl from Pakistan, typically... so they will seek other avenues and they see these young White women and girls, who are vulnerable, as prime targets - and because they're vulnerable, the foreigners prey upon them, plying them with gifts and drugs... of course, they're trapped.

This is such an explosive issue that for many years any suggestion at all that race was a factor in the Muslim sexual exploitation of children was almost entirely denied. Now race is at the center of the debate, but is that right? or is it as some suggest, a much more complex picture?

Muslim Raped 2 Year Old Girl Because Family Refused To Embrace Islam

In July 2007, Rev. Majed El Shafie traveled to Islamabad, Pakistan and met 4-year-old Neha and her Christian family. Forced conversions to Islam are very common in Pakistan.

"I was working in a for with a Muslim family who do invited me to embrace Islam... and when I totally refused to come under their pressure, they abused my daughter (age 2 1/2 years). I was working on the farm and he came to my home and he saw my young daughter and kidnapped her and when I came back home, I saw him raping my daughter. When he saw me, he ran off and left her unconscious and bleeding. I wanted to chase him but when I saw my daughter unconscious and bleeding I was unable to go after him and, instead, took up my daughter in my hands."

Neha's father

Neha has endured five surgeries attempting to repair the damage from the rape. She is still traumatized with nightmares. She can no longer pass urine the usual way.

The entire family is now in constant danger and must live in hiding.

"Every knock on our door we think that someone has come to kill us. Yes, I even went to the police, but due to Islamic pressure, they are not doing anything to help us."

Neha will never be able to live a normal life. She and her family must live in hiding in case Muslim extremists learn where they are... they can arrest them again, rape them again, and torture them again.

Population Of France Is Almost 10% Muslim

For almost half a century, Europe has had the lie that it depended on imported labor to do the kind of menial jobs its own people didn't want to do shoved down its throat by ZOG-colonizers - so much so that, ten years ago [i.e. 2004] the population of France was then almost 10% Muslim. They were the descendants of Algerian, Moroccan and Tunisian workers who were imported from France's ex-colonies abroad to replace them. Many of these scabs seeded amidst the French people lived in neglected public housing projects ruled by violent gangs and increasingly susceptible to Islamic fundamentalism.

When people talk about ghettos in France, they're talking about high-rise complexes that have been built far away from the city center to house African and Arab immigrants. Just saying you live in the neighborhood is enough to get your job application thrown in the garbage. And the unemployment amongst young people is four times the national average. With little hope of making it outside the projects, many of these young men try to dominate their own neighborhoods, resorting to violence, especially against young women. They rule gangland style, combined with the male-dominated traditions of the Arab countries they came from. It's gotten so bad that most of the young women only feel safe if they are covered up, or if they stay at home. Girls who want to look just like other French girls are considered provocative, asking for trouble.

Samira Bellil wasn't asking for trouble, but trouble came to her. She's the granddaughter of Algerian immigrants and she's written a book about surviving the hell of the Paris ghettos - infer.

"I was gang raped by three people I knew, and I couldn't say anything, because in my culture, your family is dishonored if you lose your virginity. So I kept quiet, and the rapes continued. The next time, I was pulled off a commuter train and no one lifted a finger to help me... everybody turned their head away. They were all looking out the window."

Samira Bellil

When Bellil's family discovered that she had been raped, they weren't sympathetic - they threw her out onto the streets. But she's since discovered that what happened to her was not the only case.

"There was a trial in Lille where a 13-year-old girl was gang raped by 80 men. Sometimes, it's 80, or 50 or 10. It's absolutely terrible," says Bellil. "In the case of Argenteuil, it was horrible. A young woman was raped in a school. Of course, everybody knew, but they're so afraid of these young men that they prefer to close their eyes. That's the price of peace in the ghettos."

When the verdicts came down in this case, the courthouse turned into a madhouse. Eighteen teenagers were convicted of raping a 15-year-old girl over a two-month period. But what really shocked France was how the mothers of those boys reacted.

"You call this justice, seven years in prison for some oral sex," says one mother. "It's the girl who should be behind bars."

Aboubacar was one of those convicted, not of raping the girl, but of knowing about it, and doing nothing to stop it: "When you live in a neighborhood that's so dark and tough, you can't mess with others' business, unless you want to put your life on the line," says Aboubacar. He received a suspended sentence, and now he's using his rap music to spread the message that violence is wrong.

"We were gangsters. If someone was robbing a house, I had to follow the group, otherwise they'd say I wasn't a man. Men are stronger than women. Men are more respected than women. So if I don't have many brothers, my sister can be attacked. But if I come from a big family, people will lower their eyes when they pass my sister. That's part of the law."

Aboubacar

Nadir Doudane grew up in the same projects. Now, he works as a youth counselor trying to encourage more normal relations between the boys and girls.

What is it about the projects that is at the root of this violence?

"I think it's because of tradition that makes the boys think that the girls should be treated this way and not that way," says Doudane. "It's not France here." What really scares Doudane is that Islamic fundamentalists are taking advantage of these frustrations: "It's tough. What the fundamentalists are saying to the young kids: 'We will help you find a job. we will help you be proud of who you are.' that's why it's a big success here."

On downtown Paris streets, racy ads are still the rule. But in the projects, the fundamentalist voices are growing stronger. They are now targeting the disaffected youth in the ghettos. Many of the mosques there are filled with fundamentalist preaching. This is what an influential imam of one French mosque recently said about how men can treat their wives: "If a woman cheats on her husband, her husband can beat her, as long as he doesn't hit her nose, her eyes, her ears. That's part of our religion."

The French government promptly deported this imam back to his native Algeria. Bouziane was the fifth Muslim cleric thrown out of France that year, for preaching such an intolerant form of Islam.

But this clash of cultures is threatening to divide France, between those who want to keep the country secular, and those who protested against the government's ban on wearing Islamic headscarves in public schools. It's also dividing many immigrant families, like that of a young woman we'll call Sonia: She doesn't want to be identified, because she's cut off all contact with her family. She was born in France, but her parents are from Tunisia. Sonia's father tried to send her to Tunisia for an arranged marriage, after he found out that her boss had raped her. In her father's eyes, Sonia had dishonored her whole family.

"My father told me it was my fault, that what happened to me," says Sonia. "I provoked him to do what he did to me. I couldn't change his mind."

And there are many others like Sonia. At least 70,000 young women have come under pressure to accept arranged marriages, according to France's Commission for Integration. "It's necessary to explain to parents and to young people that we are in France," says Zair Kedadouche, of Arab descent, who sits on that commission. "The relation between Islam and the relation between a woman and men, it's very hypocritical. I'm Muslim... but I know it's very hypocritical."

Equally hypocritical, he says, is the French government, which champions equality, but has effectively disenfranchised its own Muslim community -- the biggest in Europe. "We are 10 percent of the French population, and we have no members of parliament... we have 37,000 mayors. In France we have no mayor [of Arab descent]," says Kedadouche. "It's very strange... we can compare the situation of Black people in the beginning of the '60s in America and now in France."

Why, then, does there seem to be so much violence in the ghettos, in the slums and project areas, where most of the immigrants have to live?

"It's not because we are Arabic that we are delinquent. It's because we are poor, and we live in very bad conditions," says Kedadouche. But nothing prepared France for what happened to a 17-year-old French Muslim girl named Sohane Benziane. Her case really woke up the country to the nightmare that has been festering so long in these projects.

Sohane was burned alive in the basement of an apartment complex by a gang leader who had told her that he didn't want to see her on his turf. After her murder, her sister, Kahina, dedicated a memorial at the site of her killing. And just in case there was any doubt about where loyalties lie in these projects, when the young man accused of killing Sohane returned with police to show how he had doused her with gasoline, the highrise he had controlled broke out in cries of support -- that just infuriated Samira Bellil enough to help lead a national movement against this violence.

"Before, they would rape us. Now, they're burning us alive.
Sohane can't speak anymore, so I'm gonna do the talking."
Samira Bellil

"Ni Putes ni Soumises," is a provocative slogan that, roughly translated, means "We're neither whores nor doormats." It's a movement that sprang out of the ghettos, made up of mostly immigrant women who are now fighting back against the gang rapes and violence that plague their neighborhoods. Bellil was in the forefront of that fight, leading demonstrations and lobbying to set up shelters to help protect these women. In an extraordinary gesture, the French government honored Bellil's achievements, and those of 13 other women from the projects, by hanging their portraits outside the country's parliament, recognizing that France's ethnic fabric is changing.

In France, Muslim immigrants rape 24,000 women on average and gang rape 7000 females on yearly basis. In the areas populated mainly by Muslim immigrants these gang rapes are common knowledge, as Samira Bellil informed the rest of the world in her 2002 book: "Dans L'Enfer Des Tournantes (In the Hell of Tournantes)." She explained that the rapes were not even looked at as rapes but rather pass-arounds, tournantes, because the girls were passed from guy-to-guy like passing a joint, and the frequency with which they occurred was astounding. It was simply normal behavior as any girl who smokes, wears make-up or attractive clothing is considered a whore.

In 2011, the British police found more than 60 girls being groomed for sex by Muslim employees at various Blackpool fast food restaurants. The girls were mainly between 13-and-15-years-old, with some as young as 11, and were lured by gifts, food, alcohol, cigarettes and drugs. Former Detective Superintendent Mick Gradwell warned that research into the problem was being hampered by "political correctness and concerns about upsetting community cohesion." While the race of these assailants is classified as Asian, in reviewing several of these sex-grooming court cases, it was found that out of the 56 convicted, 50 were Muslim. Then similar cases were reported in Rochdale, Derby, Telford, again in Rochdale, in East London, Leicester, Preston, Sheffield, Lancaster, Manchester... it would be difficult to find a city in Great Britain where such cases of Muslim immigrants grooming, raping and prostituting white non-Muslim girls have not been reported yet.

Group-rape of girl cover up in Holland

In the Netherlands, "De Telegraaf", a national newspaper, reported about the attempt of a cover up of a group-rape in 2001.

The Districtcouncil Westerpark (a part of Amsterdam) led by 4 people, 2 from the Labour Party (PvdA) and 2 from Groen Links (Green Left) tried to cover up a group-rape by 14 boys of a 13 year old girl in the Spaarndammerbuurt. The Districtcouncil was founded directly after the rape, in January 2000, to try to avoid a civil uprising in the neighbourhood. The victim and her family were, as it now seems, completely neglected.

After the district discovered that the youths, aging from 9-to-16-years-old, who committed the group-rape of Tessa, a 13-year-old (mentally challenged) girl, were Muslim, the sexual assaults were "put aside."

"Well, they (the perpetrators) were young, early-teenagers."
citydistrictchairman M. Voster (PvdA)

According to Voster it is "policy" not to inform the neighbourhood about group-rapes committed by "children" with mostly a Moroccan backgrounds. "Because it happens a lot - recently. That is the reality." The police were not available for comment

The girl and her family weren't helped by professionals after the incident, but instead terrorized by the mostly Moroccan rapists, aging from 9 to 16 years. The mentally challenged victim and her foster parents were being called names, mocked on the street and intimidated [until, finally,] they moved.

Investigation by "De Telegraaf" revealed that Districtcouncil Westerpark's main priority was to make sure that this incident wasn't "brought to attention by the press in a wrong daylight," so that the districts name, which is already not very good, was not further downgraded. The workgroup started an extensive program for the rapists and their parents: counseling and meetings complete with Moroccan translators and many forms of educational support.

The workgroup was bashed in a report written by a PvdA member of the counsel, calling the workgroup "a watershed" (literally). According to the report, a lot of things went wrong and the local institutes failed horribly. The rapists had been in contact with local police many times for other criminal acts.

14 The highly traumatized victim, who was threatened by the 14 boys with an imitation gun and knives, was beaten, kicked, raped and in other ways abused, is currently to be forced to undergo counseling at a psychiatric youth-and-child institution, because there is no place for her in the Amsterdam-area daycare. This caused great concern to her foster parents: "We want to keep her here at home. This seems like the world has been turned around. Our daughter has been taken to a psychiatric jail and the perpetrators are walking free again!"

The Districtcouncil's chairman Annemarie Hoogland admits that certain thing went wrong: "But we didn't wanted to cover these events up. We only tried to protect the rapists from civil justice - the neighbourhood taking things in their own hands."

According to the mental institution that holds parenthood of the girl, the William Schrikkersstichting (Schrikkerfoundation) in Diemen, Tessa has been taken into a so called "crisisplace." The poor traumatized girl is being held there because of a suicide attempt she committed on 18 October 2001 - and the fact that she keeps wounding herself with pieces of glass.

Peggy Termonen, Tessa's fostermother said about the forced placement of Tessa in the mental institution, location Noorderzand van Rijksinrichting (Federal institution), a former woman's prison, in Heerhugowaard: "It's like a jail there, she isn't allowed to go outside, and I'm not allowed to call her."

Well, how come these politically correct leftists are protecting criminals, rapists and terrorists and blaming their victims, trying to convince everyone that "they asked for it"? How come they don't give a rat's-ass about the victims of the crimes that they allow to happen? For lefties the rights of criminals are far more important then those of honest people. It frightens me that they (our leftist leaders) cannot even care that a 13 year old mentally challenged girl was brutally raped and violated, but seem more worried about the well-being of the rapists!

They are destroying the Netherlands with ideas like "multiculturalism" and "trying to rehabilitate and re-educate" criminals. All these attempts fail... and now the whole of Norwegian society has fallen victim.

The moral degradation began in the 1960's. After WW II, there was a "baby-boom" - by 1960 these babies were "grown up" and, led by the Zio-media, rebelled against all established moral standards - and this was the great beginning of our current crisis throughout White Western European Civilization.

Now the "baby-boomers" are politically in power and breaking down everything their parents and grandparents worked and died for: This being very similar to what happened throughout Communist Red China during Chairman Mao's People's Revolution. These lefties have changed the constitution, legalized drugs, prostitution and the killing of elderly (euthanasia), the police aren't even concerned about crime anymore. Instead of protecting people and doing something about the ever growing crime-rates, they constantly whine that they (the police) are undermanned; but they got officers enough to constantly do traffic speeding-controls and fine motorists who exceed the speed limit; they say they do this for "the safety of the motorists" - yeah right! for speeding 15 km (about 10 miles) you are fined 140 gulden (about 60 dollar), for possession of 30 grams (!) of hashish (pot) you are fined 150 gulden (about 64 dollar). Also, you may not defend yourself against criminals: Recently in the town of Neer, a policeman caught a burglar red-handed in his home; during a struggle, the policeman broke the burglar's arm; the policeman was later brought before court "for violating the burglar's rights"!

There is 4-to-5 times more chance to be killed in Amsterdam than in Rome. About 1.3 million crimes are reported to the police, and 1 million of them are filed without any investigation. If you kill some one, there is only 15% change police catches you. Criminals and drug-dealers are treated like saints and your only civil rights are to be mugged, raped or beaten up by the criminals that roam the country, unhindered by anyone! If you try to stop them or even dare to speak up, the lefties (and all their pressure groups) directly cut you down and call you racist or intolerant... as more-and-more it pays off for many people not to work and live on welfare.

Muslim gang rapists are springing up everywhere. Why can't we be honest about it?

The notorious Sydney gang rapes in 2000 were committed by Australian-born Lebanese Muslim men who raped women and girls as young as 14. Australia identified that the rapists were targeting White girls and branded these monstrous acts "racially-motivated hate crimes" - and because that's what they looked like: one ethnicity was specifically targeting another. The Australian girls were vulnerable, and they were abused by Middle Eastern men who considered them "trash." Had these men been at home, they would have raped their own, but in another country, women from outside their own "community" were preferable victims.

Elsewhere in Europe, the problem has been known about for years. In the Netherlands, it's Moroccans and Turks who have taken advantage of legalized brothels to entrap and enslave white girls. Holland has been dealing with and discussing this problem openly since 2001. And now "we" will have our own gang rape scandals, with chillingly similar dynamics at play.

In Rotherham, South Yorkshire, England, between 1997 and 2013 it was Pakistanis - and a staggering 1400 victims across sixteen years. In 2012, the Times uncovered documents showing agencies were aware of extensive and coordinated abuse of white girls by Asian men in Rotherham for which no one had been prosecuted.

Once again, a single ethnicity, targeting another.

But only a racist would believe this was a "Pakistani" problem. It isn't. It's a cultural phenomenon unique to Muslim communities, as suggested by the prevalence of father-son combinations in so many of the gangs, wherever in the world they appear. And here's another clue... it's not just about Brown-on-White crime: Britain's Sikh community has been complaining for years that its young girls are being targeted by Muslim rapists.

But good luck figuring out the complicated racial and religious dimensions to these crimes if you're getting your news from the Guardian. That Zio-newspaper, together with some parts of the BBC, is committing the same error in judgment that the police and council in Rotherham did over all those years... and turning a blind eye to obviously pertinent facts of the case for political reasons - infer.

There are complex religious and cultural reasons why Muslim men are drawn to rape in gangs -, often in family units - with fathers, sons and uncles all raping the same women. But how will we ever know why this is so? and begin to tackle it - until we are honest about what's happening?

Decades of cover-ups and cowardice by the lying media and thieving politicians and mercenary law enforcement. It shows that what has been happening on our streets is better understood by ordinary members of the public than by the people who run their cities.

Rotherham is a Labour party area, though it is also somewhat United Kingdom Independence Party (UKIP) Eurosceptic and right-wing populist - doing strongly in elections - probably because local residents are a lot more realistic about the town's problems than its police force. The British National Party (BNP), a far-right British nationalist political party formed by John Tyndall in 1982, even came third in a 2010 by-election with a Labour party obsession for political correctness, multiculturalism and avoiding accusations of racism that some say contribute to disasters such as these.

"Now we can see the terrible harm done by so-called 'progressive' zealots who have made it a thought crime to identify and deal with bad behaviour by minorities, while in another part of the liberal jungle sanctioning the sexual free-for-all," wrote Times columnist Melanie Phillips.

15 It is difficult to overstate how awful these crimes are, nor how completely victims have been failed by the authorities. One girl was doused in petrol and told she would be set on fire if she didn't comply.

ISIS Rapes Women Toward Allah

Others were forced to watch rapes and told they would be next if they spoke out. The police regarded these girls with as much contempt as the rapists.

In two cases fathers had tracked down their daughters and tried to rescue them from houses in which they were being held, only to find themselves arrested by police, while the rapists walked free.

How many council staff do you suppose are under investigation, or have been sacked? Yup, you guessed it: none.

Rotherham council's chief executive, Martin Kimber, has not only stayed in his post but he has said he doesn't have evidence enough to prosecute or discipline a single member of the council's staff. "Failures of leadership," he called it – a modern euphemism for the refusal by bosses to do the honourable thing and take responsibility.

"Officers in senior positions responsible for children's safeguarding services throughout the critical periods when services fell some way short of today's standards do not work for the council today," he said.

How convenient for him!

If you're wondering just how badly in denial our police and politicians were about all this, by the way, consider a BBC report from 2012 which recounts that Chief Constable David Crompton was asked if "ethnic origin was a factor" in the Crown Prosecution Service charging suspects. His reply? was: "No, it's not a factor at all."

It's hard to avoid the conclusion that the Left-wing Zio-media appears to be in cahoots with the "Establishment" to cover up crime because it refuses to acknowledge that there might be such a thing as a racially or religiously inflected crime not committed by a white person.

With lies and denial at those levels, God only knows what's happening in the rest of the country. Will we ever find out? or are politicians and the police force hell-bent on enforcing colourblindness, even if it means thousands of children being sexually abused? because, I'm sorry to say, it's simply not plausible that Rotherham is the only town in which this is happening.

It remains true that the majority of child abusers are older White men... but how many White men rape on the scale we've seen in Rotherham and Sydney? – not to mention what happens back in Pakistan and the Middle East? In any case, it's obvious why there are more white rapists: Britain is 90% White. But although White child abusers tend to act alone, gangs of rapists operating on an industrial scale is a specific cultural problem in Muslim communities. Why bother denying it?

Gang rape is a "usual part of growing up" in some parts of Rotherham. For how many other cities in our country is that the case? Shouldn't we be looking elsewhere, to places where there are similar socioeconomic, religious and ethnic mixes, to see if the same problems exist and help to prevent more young girls from being abused? or would that be "racist"?

The political Left shrieks blue murder over the slightest indication of overbearing male behaviour when it's a White man. The tone-deaf "Everyday Sexism" project is a weapon wielded almost exclusively at White middle-class men by White middle-class women. But it makes excuses for rapists and even child abusers when the criminals are Black, or, especially, from a Muslim community.

It takes a brave politician, especially if they sit on the Labour side of the House, to speak frankly about Muslim attitudes to non-Muslims in Britain today. Remember the outcry when Jack Straw said what everyone in his constituency knew, that White girls were considered "easy meat" by Pakistani rapists? he was right, though.

How long before we admit there's a Muslim gang rape problem in this country? and how on earth can we prevent further abuses, if we're not honest about why these things happen and who's involved, and we seek to better understand the dynamics of these communities and what might motivate their young men to commit these crimes?

Women sold as slaves. Women beaten in the streets. Women raped for sport. Girls as young as 8 or 9 years old forced into marriages with strangers, and bound to sexual servitude. The reports of the atrocities perpetrated by the Islamic State against girls and women – most of them Yazidi – seem as unending as they are despicable and senseless. But the latest may yet be the most depraved: women and girls being raped repeatedly as a way to "make" them Muslim.

A new directive from ISIS's self-appointed caliph, Abu Bakr Al-Baghdadi, instructs men to rape the women that they capture. A woman who is raped 10 times, it says, will then become a Muslim. That this represents an extraordinary manipulation of Islamic law, or Shari'a, seems to be of no concern to ISIS soldiers despite their professed devotion to upholding and imposing those very laws. And it presages even greater danger for the girls than the rape itself. One Yazidi woman, identified only as "Noor," spoke of a soldier to whom she was enslaved raping her and then allowing 11 others to do the same, meaning that she was in fact twice raped after "becoming" Muslim. But a Muslim woman who is raped is guilty of adultery according to Shari'a, and is a dishonor to her family and her tribe. Their only redemption is to kill her – a so-called honor killing. Will this new directive then allow ISIS members to legitimize the murders of Yazidi women and young girls who – unlike Yazidi men – have largely been allowed to live so long as they remain concubines and slaves to ISIS warriors? or is it simply a new form of Islamic conquest, legitimizing rape while expanding the Muslim population? or something else?

Other victims have also said they were told their rapes were a form of worship, encouraged in the Qur'an. Indeed, in an extensive investigation, the New York Times described a "theology of rape," in which militants often pray before molesting their victims. One victim, a 12-year-old Yazidi girl, told the Times: "He said that by raping me he is drawing closer to god."

"Repeatedly," the Times reports, "the ISIS leadership has emphasized a narrow and selective reading of the Qur'an and other religious rulings to not only justify violence, but also to elevate and celebrate each sexual assault as spiritually beneficial, even virtuous." Even more shocking, the Times investigation shows, "child rape is explicitly condoned" by Islamic State leaders, who have victimized Yazidis more than other religious minorities, as Yazidis practice a non-Abrahamic religion that ISIS considers a form of devil worship. Such tactics might lead those otherwise repelled by the idea of raping helpless girls to believe that such depravities are not only sanctioned by their religion – but holy. And if raping a girl ten times will bring her to Islam, then indeed each rapist becomes, in this perverted vision, not her diabolus but her savior.

But it isn't only non-Muslim women who are victimized. Similar tactics have emerged among Muslim communities in Libya, where, according to Britain's Express, parents in the ISIS stronghold of Sarte are being forced to marry off their daughters to ISIS rebels or face public flogging or worse. In Derna, girls as young as 12 have also reportedly been married off, traded for a promise of protection to the family. Consequently, according to the Independent, "the number of under-age girls forced to marry has increased 15 percent since an Islamic State local branch seized a large part of the coastal city" last October.

Many Western Muslims decry the rapes and forced marriages, arguing that, as Pakistani-American counterterrorism expert Farhana Qazi said: "Rape and any form of abuse is against the tenets and practice of Islam." But others point to a legacy of enslavement in Islam, particularly during war, and note that there are even rules regarding the treatment of slaves and the taking of women as concubines outlined in the Qur'an. It is that legacy, they maintain, that ISIS leaders use to justify their actions as part of their revival of a true, "pure" Islam.

Such is the evil cunning of the Islamic State and its leadership: with a single weapon – rape – they penetrate not just the bodies of young women, but, too, the hearts and minds of men. Not only are 72 virgins waiting for you in Heaven, but if you join us, you can rape your way across the Levant. And with its powerful propaganda machines, it is possible that the “holy rape” fable could even help recruit more young Muslim women from the West, urging them to join the jihad in Syria and, in their already-distorted thinking, to give their bodies to the militants. It will make them “more holy.” It will bring the soldiers closer to Allah in their strife.

Should the propagandists of ISIS endure long enough, they can shape the ideas and visions of the next generation and the very depths of their inhumanity. It seems almost beyond the reach of Western, post-Enlightenment minds, a way of thinking we cannot begin to comprehend. How can we possibly begin to combat it, let alone to build a humane culture in its place? Frighteningly, Farhana Qazi says it may not even be possible. Yet somehow we will have to. Because each of these young women, these girls enslaved for sex, will soon become a mother. And what they teach their children – daughters as well as sons – will be left to their ISIS masters if we fail.

MUSLIM "REFUGEES" BRING PREGNANT LITTLE GIRLS AS "CHILD BRIDES" TO EUROPE

The millions of Muslim migrants invading Europe under the guise of refugees are making the abuse of children into the new normal. If you want to know where the Muslim sex grooming scandals of the UK in which thousands of young girls were raped come from, it's down to religion and culture.

And this is what Europe is importing via Religion of Peace:

Dutch asylum centers are reportedly housing 20 child brides aged between 13 and 15, while three a week on average are arriving to the country. The brides were granted legal permission to join their older partners after the country recognized marriages involving young teenagers if they are officially registered in their home country.

Yes, you read that correctly. It is true that the Netherlands have recognized child rape as a legal marriage if it's legal under Muslim law.

Outraged Dutch Labour MP Attje Kuiken said: "A 12-year-old girl with a 40-year-old man - that is not a marriage, that is abuse. We're talking about really young children, girls 12, 13 years old. I want to protect these children."

Child brides as young as 12 have been ordered to stay with the men they were forced to marry after European officials agreed to recognize the partnerships. It comes amid fears of a pedophilia epidemic inside European refugee camps after a pregnant 14-year-old girl went missing from a Dutch centre. Fatema Alkasem disappeared along with her 24-year-old husband in August and police are concerned the Syrian girl needs medical care.

This is not going over well among the native population. More than 36,000 people entered the Netherlands this year. Former prisons, empty government offices and sports halls are being hastily modified to accommodate the surge in numbers. Earlier this month, Finance Minister Jeroen Dijsselbloem announced that the treasury's original projection of $340 million to cover the cost of the new arrivals in 2015 was wildly understated. They are now looking at a bill of approximately $1.13 billion.

The anti-immigration Freedom Party is enjoying its highest ever poll rating. The Freedom Party's popularity is being partly attributed to Dutch concern about the continent's inability to manage the flow of new arrivals.

Europe is trashed with third world scum implementing Shari'a law, including child rape and marriages with children. Look at Canada's pro-Muslim Liberal Justin Trudeau. How did lying Muslim-loving Obama do it a second time? It tells you that voters have an affinity for the left. You are who you vote in and it seems that the more evidence mounts against accepting Muslims into our communities the more people want to embrace them. In the end the lying mainstream media are there constantly brainwashing people with false narratives.

Pedophilia and Pederasty are just two of the reasons Jewish neo-cons and secularists want to be rid of Christianity - because Christians fight against these abominations being accepted. Just look at the support the degenerate ✱ Roman Polanski got in Europe (and Hollywood) after drugging and having sex with a 13 year old girl.

From the Islamic point of view, it's all about building an army for the continuation of Jihad and the eventual conquest of the world. The sooner a young woman starts having babies, the more children she can have over the course of her reproductive life. With Muslims it's obviously just a numbers game. The more children, the more Muslims, and the more Muslims, the more warriors for all forms of Jihad. At the rate they are going, Muslims know they will be in the majority soon enough in Western Europe, and then they will be able to use the democratic ideals of the host cultures to defeat and destroy them. Once they are in the majority, Muslims will be able to impose Sharia law by the will of the majority, which will effectively eliminate the institution of democracy completely going forward. The only thing at all surprising about any of it is that the nations of Europe do not seem to be able to recognize what is happening to them.

I'm reminded of the caterpillar and parasitic wasp. The caterpillar is eaten from the inside out. In nature the wasp benefits humanity. Islam's benefits for humanity are non-existent.

Muslim 'migrants' raping women and children in camps in Germany

A shocking German document dated 18 August 2015 from a refugee center in Hessen (Germany) sounds the alarm about Muslim immigrants raping the women and children. They clearly state that it is not incidental: it happens a lot. Women don't dare go to the bathroom at night and sleep in their day clothes.

According to this document women are "assigned a subordinate role" and unaccompanied females are treated as "fair game." Many of these women, according to the document, are fleeing "forced marriage" and/or "female genital mutilation." The consequences are numerous rapes and sexual assaults. Increasingly is also reports of forced prostitution. There are not isolated cases. Women report that they, as well as children, have been raped or sexual assaulted are exposed.

These are the people who are going to be released into our society... despite their having traumatized their fellow refugees - soulless savages - imagine what they'll do to non-Muslim women in Germany, France, U.K., etc.

Germany expects to take in one million Muslim migrants this year. Remember, these are the same "refugees" who threw the Christians off the boats to their deaths during the Mediterranean journey a few months back. And little teenaged German girls with signs welcome these hardened Islamists at the train stations... just wait and see what happens to them.

Muslim Raping of Women Epidemic in Refugee Camps

Christians fear Islamic retribution

Raping of female refugees has become epidemic at the Muslim-dominated refugee centers in Germany: Women are "assigned a subordinate role" and unaccompanied females are treated as "fair game." Many of these women are fleeing "forced marriage" and/or "female genital mutilation." The consequences are numerous rapes and sexual assaults. Even prostitution.

The same tragic situation has been reported in Calais (France), where 3000 migrants from the Middle East and Africa are crowded into a tent city awaiting passage to Britain.

"I'm surrounded by men," Milad, a 22-year-old Syrian woman, told France 24 (pronounced France vingt-quatre), an international news and current affairs television channel based in Paris.

"I don't know anything about most of them. I don't speak their language, I don't know where they're from and what they've lived through. So I have to be on my guard.” She made the trip with her uncle Yasser, and they are trying to reach his brother, a physician living in London. Milad said she wonders how some women accomplish this journey on their own.

“They must be very brave,” she told France24.

They’ve pitched their tent alongside the camp’s minority community of Syrians – most of the other residents are from African nations such as Eritrea and Sudan. When Yasser leaves to buy food from one of the makeshift shops, he says: “The Syrian guys look after her while I’m gone. She can’t come with me.”

“All I can think about is keeping her safe,” he says. At night, they take turns staying awake in case someone attacks them. These are not isolated cases: “Women report that they, as well as children, have been raped or sexually assaulted and are exposed.”

“These are the people who are going to be released into society after they’ve traumatized their fellow refugees. These are savages. Imagine what they’ll do to non-Muslim women in Germany, France, U.K., etc. Remember, these are the same ‘refugees’ who threw the Christians off the boats to their deaths during the Mediterranean journey a few months back.”

Pamela Geller

Germany expects to take in nearly 1 million Muslim migrants this year. Faustine Douillard, a social worker for the NGO France, Land of Asylum, visits the camp at Calais every day to advise those claiming asylum in France.

“I have to go through the men to speak to the women,” she says. “They don’t know their rights, and that makes them very vulnerable.” Some, she says, are forced to take on male “protectors,” who demand sexual favors in return. This is also the reason why so few Christians are going to the refugee camps. These camps are not safe for Christians, whom are targeted for brutality in the refugee camps. As a result, persecuted Christians in Syria and Iraq who have been forced out of their homes by ISIS and other Jihadist groups are hiding in churches and in the homes of other Christians.

Samira Bellil

Samira Bellil (24 November 1972 – 4 September 2004) was a French feminist activist and a campaigner for the rights of girls and women.

Bellil was born to Algerian parents in Algiers, but her family migrated to France and settled in the Parisian suburb of Val-d’Oise. Her father was jailed almost immediately and she was fostered by a family in Belgium for five years, before being called back to her parents. As a teenager Bellil rebelled against the traditional constraints of her community and wanted to live freely as a young French woman.

Samira was first gang-raped when she was 14, by a gang led by someone she knew. They beat her viciously and raped her all night. A month later, one of the most violent attackers in the gang followed her and dragged her off a train by her hair, while other passengers looked the other way. She was then brutally raped by him again. She did not report her rapes until two friends told her that the same gang had sexually assaulted them too. Samira decided to appeal to the French legal system to prosecute her attackers. In the end, the ring leader of the gang was sentenced to eight years in prison.

Bellil’s parents, who believed they were shamed by her presence, expelled her from her house.

Eventually, she found a psychologist who helped her. She had years of therapy, and describes how she decided to write her book to show other young women gang-rape victims that there was a way out. “It’s long and it’s difficult, but it’s possible,” she wrote in the dedication - to “my sisters in trouble.”

Bellil became famous in France with the publication of her autobiographical book Dans l’enfer des tournantes (In the hell of the "tournantes" (gang-rapes)) in 2002. The book discusses the violence she and other young women endured in the predominantly Muslim immigrant outskirts of Paris. Bellil helped found a young women’s activist group called Ni Putes Ni Soumises (“Neither whores nor submissive”) which has publicly addressed the issue of violence against young women in France. The group drew the attention of the French and European press as they organized marches and press conferences to bring attention to the tragic events happening to young women in the Islamic neighborhoods of France. She denounced the gang-rapes (known as “tournantes,” or “pass-arounds”) and described how she overcame both her traumatic experiences and the need for revenge.

In part due to Bellil’s book and the activism of Ni Putes Ni Soumises, the French government and the mayor’s office in Paris began investigating the problem of violence against young women in French Muslim communities.

Samira Bellil died (age 31) in Paris, on 4 September 2004, of stomach cancer.
